Mayor Demands Reconsideration Of Fortin Plan

North Side Ratepayers' Meeting In Masonic Temple Hears Plea For Lower Interest and Support For Extension Of City Airport Facilities

Demanding reconsideration of the $26,000,000 Fortin bond debt extension plan accepted early this year by city council and promising he would co-operate with banks, bondholders and members of the legislature and Dominion parliament in an effort to obtain a better settlement of Edmonton's debenture debt, Mayor Joseph A. Clarke addressed a meeting of taxpayers at the annual North Side ratepayers' meeting in the Masonic Temple auditorium Wednesday night.

SOCREDS HEAR OF PROGRESS ON HIGHWAYS

Provincial Treasurer and Clover Bar Member Address Meeting Here

Report of special committee investigating the possibilities for continuing half insurance in this province, will be submitted to the annual convention of the Alberta Association of Rural Municipalities, which will be held in this city during November. Hon. Solon E. Low, provincial treasurer, told a Social Credit rally at Anderson hall, on Wednesday night.

The minister was one of two main speakers to address the gathering, the other being Percy M. Baker.

MEETING CALLED
Following the last session of the legislature, the minister called a meeting of representatives of all organizations interested in discussing ways and means of working out a general plan of crop insurance.

The committee report will be made to the annual convention of rural municipalities. During the annual convention, which dealt with the government's record, he directed attention to many excellent highways built by this government. Prior to the present administration, he said, there had been little effort made to construct hard-surfaced highways. Now, a large mileage of hard-surfaced highways had been added and much grading done this year.

Bishop Of Pembroke

formerly vice-archbishop of the Edmonton diocese, who was consecrated Bishop of Pembroke, Ontario Thursday morning at a colorful ceremony in St. Joseph's Cathedral. He is one of the youngest bishops in Canada, being only 42. Archbishop H. J. O'Leary, Archbishop of Edmonton, was the consecrating prelate, his assistants being Archbishop James Charles McGuigan of Toronto and Archbishop J. H. MacDonald, Coadjutor Archbishop of Edmonton.

Colorful Ceremony As Bishop Nelligan Consecrated Here

Beloved Edmonton Roman Catholic Cleric Is Declared New Bishop Of Pembroke, Ontario

Bishop Charles Leo Nelligan was dedicated anew to service to the Roman Catholic faith and religious truth as he was declared, in a service Thursday morning in St. Joseph's cathedral that typified the storied grandeur of the Church Universal, the new bishop of Pembroke, Ontario.

Leaders of the Roman Catholic church in Canada were present at the ceremony of his episcopal consecration. Long before the service began at 10 p.m., the cathedral was crowded with the faithful. The bishop-elect, who had been in the city since his arrival in the city, was escorted to the altar by a platoon of the imperial guard of the prelates.

Hymns sanctified by tradition were chanted to a hushed congregation by the full-voiced choir, as the hallowed rites of the episcopal service were performed by church leaders present in the attractive instance of their office.

Most Reverend Bruce Joseph O'Leary, archbishop of Edmonton, was the consecrating prelate, with Most Reverend James Charles McGuigan, archbishop of Toronto, and Most Reverend John Joseph MacDonald, coadjutor archbishop of Edmonton, acting as assistant consecrators.

Sermons were preached by Most Reverend Pierre Pallan, O.S.B., coadjutor viceroy apostolic of Macdonald, who spoke in French, and Most Reverend Francis Patrick Carroll, bishop of Calgary, who delivered the English sermon. Admittances to duty mingled with the colorful new bishop as the speakers urged upon Bishop Nelligan the high purpose enshrined in the office to which he had been called so that he might be of service to the people.

Moose Jaw Rebels Against Payment Of Bonded Debt

Bondholders Must Offer Refinancing as Demanded by Council—Forty Per Cent. Reduction in Instalment Payments Asked—Federal Government to Write Off $17,000,000 Debt Due Dominion From Province Of Saskatchewan—Will Aid Drought Area Residents.

MOOSE JAW, Sask., Oct. 28.—Refusal to pay either principal or interest instalments on Moose Jaw's bonded indebtedness maturing after December 31, 1937, unless bondholders present a refinancing proposal is provided in a resolution passed this week by city council, which also decided to ask the Saskatchewan local government board to relieve the city of responsibility of levying for principal and interest in instalment payments.

Alternative Plan Refinancing Is Asked

Following an inquiry in March, the board ordered a 40 per cent reduction in interest rates in the city's capital in debentures.

Julius E. Fortin, secretary of the Dominion Mortgage and Investment Association, agreed at the inquiry to present an alternate plan of refinancing. The plan has not been presented to the city.

Moose Jaw received permission from the Saskatchewan government's Local Improvement Board about a year ago to cut their bond interest payments by 40 per cent. Under Saskatchewan law this was binding on the bondholders providing less than 20 per cent of the bondholders sent in written objections. Mr. Fortin sent in more than 20 per cent and the 40 per cent reduction did not become immediately effective.

Federal Government To Write Off $17,000,000

By a general plan of debt adjustment in the drought area of Saskatchewan, the federal government will write off $17,000,000 of debt due to the Dominion from Saskatchewan. Such write-off will be made by the federal government in recognition of its responsibility in coming to the aid of residents of the province's drought area.

Announcement that such negotiations were now under way and would be completed shortly was made here last night by Hon. T. C. Davis, C.D., secretary-general of the federal government, at a dinner before the annual dinner of the Thunder Creek Local association.

As a result of such a write-off the public debt of the province would be reduced to roughly $180,000,000, or an increase of $20,000,000 since the present government returned to office.

DISEASE TAKES TWO LIVES IN CITY HOSPITAL

Health Officials Urge Diphtheria Inoculation For Children

Death of two of three children this week following their admission to the isolation hospital for diphtheria treatment was reported Thursday by city health department, which is requesting parents to have their children inoculated as a protection against this disease.

The patients, aged two, four and six years, respectively, were brought to the hospital from their homes west of the city limits. Born early dressed with the mummy, a boy and a girl died last Monday and Wednesday. The third case is receiving treatment and is expected to recover.

There are no Edmonton cases, but health officials are nevertheless warning parents to have their children inoculated against diphtheria. Prompt precautionary measures by having children inoculated against diphtheria would in cases where this treatment has not been given, family physicians or, if preferred, parents may bring children to the city health department's office, 407 Civic block, for inoculation. This inoculation is free of charge. The inoculation will be given between 10:30 and 11:30 a.m.

ALBERTA BILLS ARE DOOMED OTTAWA VIEW

Premier King Believes In Free Press, He Has Stated Publicly

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—The federal government's decision on three Alberta bills on which Lieutenant Governor Bowen reserved assent, is expected to be announced after the cabinet meeting today. The announcement may be made about 4:30 p.m., M.S.T.

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Speculation over the Dominion government's attitude toward Alberta's banking and newspaper control acts is expected to be set at rest today when Prime Minister Mackenzie King meets his colleagues in cabinet for the second time this week.

Meanwhile the expectation is the government will propose an agreement with the province by which the measures will be submitted to a court, remaining inoperative pending the judicial decision.

If Premier Aklavik and his associates in the Alberta Social Credit government refuse to accept such conditions it is anticipated the recommendation from the government council in council will be that Lieutenant Governor Bowen refuse assent to the bills.

Disapproval of at least one of the measures, that providing banks must be licensed in the province, would be subject to control of a board controlled by the local government, would be considered a foregone conclusion.

The other two measures, which would be subject to control of a board controlled by the local government, would be considered a foregone conclusion.

Doomed Chinese Battalion Spurns U.S.-British Plan

SHANGHAI, Oct. 28.—British and United States military forces sought to aid withdrawal of a Chinese battalion, trapped by Japanese, to end the menace of stray bullets falling into Shanghai's international settlement with its thousands of foreigners.

The defeat, almost certainly doomed battalion held grimly to a small area within Chinese control which the remainder of their army abandoned yesterday to flames and advancing Japanese.

Demands for Chinese withdrawal had gathered on Shanghai, despite a phalanx of machine guns and anti-aircraft guns, to watch the fighting along the international border when the British and American effort of aid was made.

Sir Hubert Preparing For Hunt

Noted Explorer Convinced Missing Men Are Sending Out Messages

OTTAWA, Oct. 28.—Convinced that the Russian forces, lost ten weeks ago in the Arctic during a Moscow to Fairbanks, Alaska, flight, have been sending out wireless messages in an effort to call assistance, Sir Hubert Wilkins, veteran Arctic explorer, was here today rubbing preparations for a second search expedition.

Sir Hubert said some radio transmitter messages, caught by amateur and professional radio operators, had been received. These messages have been decoded by experts to have come from the Soviet plane, identifying them as the crew of a plane that was shot down.

In Ottawa, Sir Hubert purchased some radio direction finding equipment from the department of transport and the wireless force. The equipment will be re-equipped by the department at an assumed valuation when the expedition returns.

BRITAIN WILL LIKELY AVOID JAP SANCTIONS

Liberal and Labor Opinion Still Clamorous For Action

By GRANT DEXTER
London Bureau of the Edmonton Bulletin
LONDON, Oct. 28.—It is becoming plainly evident that the British government's policy at the Nine Power Conference at Brussels will be to avoid action likely to result in Japanese sanctions against Japan.

Sanctions in any form are the program to the British government, while it may be reluctant to specify a definite policy, it is generally agreed that the British policy is to avoid action likely to result in Japanese sanctions against Japan. It is believed that the British government will seek to turn the matter into a peace-making exercise, whereas previously it was expected on the basis of the League of Nations that the British government would be prepared to accept the acceptance of a peace which would be subject to control of a board controlled by the local government.

Romance Is Fine, But Can't Chase It And Have It, Too

CHAPTER I
"Jill, the girl of the moment," Jill Wentworth decided. She was one of a gay crowd that had surged down the gangplank, sunbathing a-crawling from Europe just last night.

During the year of study and travel she had not felt even one little pang of nostalgia, she thought. And now, here on home soil, she was definitely, terribly homesick. In all the big crowd milling about her—kissing, pitting, shaking hands or rapturously hugging—there was not one welcome for her.

A red cap stuck her baggage down beside her and made off with a generous tip, while Jill stood casting bewildered looks about her. Surely, David, the chauffeur, should be arriving any now, anyway, very apologetic about the delay.

Other luggage was being piled near the curb as shining cars and taxis continued for vintage positions.

In the jumble of travel impatience, Jill saw her own small luggage, rubbing noses with several baggage bags, which boys, nevertheless, as any foreign stamp as she saw.

Not far away the owner of these was arguing with a porter. The young man appeared much concerned about one very large and battered case. There was a belated squaring of his shoulders. And then, Jill saw, the young man turned. It couldn't be! But it was the same young artist who had persisted in cramping up her pathway ever at the hotel.

That, how, had he reached the United States at the very moment of her arrival? He couldn't have come over on the same ship. If he had, she couldn't have missed him.

"Jill, please," he said, short. A taxi, swung into place at the curb. "That, miss—"

Jill gave another hasty glance around. Where was her luggage? Evidently, no one was meeting her. Even at this hour.

"That one, that one. All those with the broad green stripes. That one and the hat box. Gracious, my baggage had been brought beside her trunk?"

There was a step beside her. "And this one," said a voice.

Jill, startled, looked up. She had seen him in Europe, he had seemed in a perfect truce. He had pointed all Europe. It had been ridiculous—running into him in three widely separated places. And she had never forgiven him for not really seeing her any of those times.

If he didn't remember, that was none of her business. He should be punished. Jill proceeded to punish.

"It's quit all right," she said. "I can understand how the mistake occurred, with your luggage so awkward, but better, wouldn't it, if you would let them take care of it for you?"

The young man smiled a little, matching the very light brown hair of the girl. He should have realized that a smart artist would assure you that it didn't, as a rule, go for the grabbing off people's things.

She smiled, replied even with teeth and brought a humorous light to his eyes. He was much nicer in this than he had been. Every time

HOUSING PLAN ONLY SOLUTION COWPER SAYS

Independent Candidate For Mayor Addresses Meeting in Calder

The report of the Edmonton Commissioners, published yesterday, amply confirms his argument that nothing but a large scale better-housing plan can aid the city in solving its unemployment and slumming problems. This was the argument of J. S. Cowper, independent candidate for Mayor, before a meeting in the Central Community Hall on Wednesday evening.

From the report of the city commissioners for the year 1937, Mr. Cowper showed that the city had undergone a steady shrinkage of population, so that whereas it had an assessment roll of $22,000,000 in 1933 with a 30 mill tax rate, last year it had an assessment roll of $24,000,000, with a 34 mill rate.

The report, he said, specifically stated that the taxpayers must not expect any reduction below the present rate. Yet all that the adoption of the Fortin Plan had brought the city to escape a 34 mill rate.

PLANES STILL GOING NORTH

On what may be the last flight to the north from Edmonton this season, Pilot G. McLean, Macleate Air Service, took off from Coaling Lake at 10 a.m. Thursday for Fort McMurray. He will be met at that point by Pilot Alvin Dams, who will relay his lead to Goldfield and "freese" in it.

Severe rain and strong conditions were reported at Fort McMurray on Thursday and northern flights from that point were delayed.

Pilot Jack Wright, Canadian Airways, was waiting for weather to clear during the morning before taking off with the mail. Seawell will fly to Goldfield and return to Edmonton.

Hours and Seawell will be flying the latest mail ever to reach those points, unprecedented warm weather having kept flying open later than ever before.

Pilot Jack Wright, Canadian Airways, took off from Yellowknife, 100 miles and 122 mailbags, Lehighville 73 lbs. 11 oz. and 12 mailbags, and Medicine Hat 100 lbs. 11 oz. and 12 mailbags.
